

Directions to Camp Mary White

Traveling from the East or West

- Follow HWY 82 to Mayhill, New Mexico.
- Turn south onto HWY 130 and cross the bridge. Go 5 miles.
- Turn south onto HWY 24. Go ½ mile and cross the bridge. Mary White Historical Marker will be on your right.
- At the green street sign that says, "Camp Mary White," take the right fork onto the dirt road this is Bear Canyon Rd.
- Go 6 miles up the dirt road. Keep going past the cattle guards and signs that indicate "Private Property - Muleshoe Ranch"

- As you get nearer to the camp, you will pass the long white ranch house at Muleshoe Ranch on your left. Keep going until you reach Camp Mary White.

Please note: Bear Canyon Rd, although a well-kept county road, is narrow and steep in places. Please drive slowly and with caution as you will likely be sharing the road with other families coming to or leaving from the camp. Also, please watch for livestock, including goats, dogs, and cows, on the road, especially as you near Muleshoe Ranch.
